i would like you to search for pedal covers that completely enclose a bicycle pedal, the cover is preferably made of a flexible material and may have an indent on the outer surface. The indent may resemble the general shape of a person's bare foot.

also please search so that a pedal cover on the inner surfaces has some sort of roughened surface or protrusions that help to secure the pedal cover to the pedal.

*Please search in non patent literature
I'm currently searching in the USPTO patents and foreign abstracts also*

and foreign abstracts
